The Shakespeare Code

by Virginia Fellows

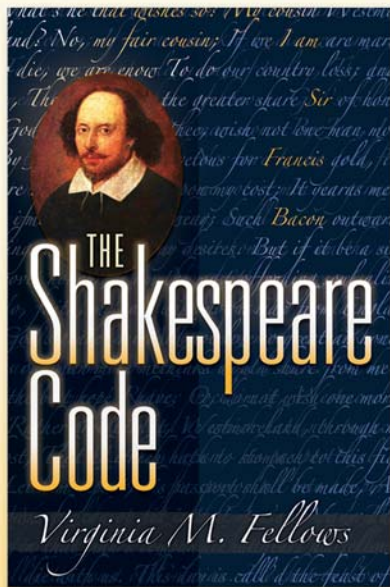

A true story revealed in actual hidden codes within the works of Shakespeare!

It reads like a Shakespearean tale complete with mystery, villains, false identities and star-crossed lovers.

- 1623, October: Sir Francis Bacon introduces a new and ingenious method of writing in code.
- 1623, November: Shakespeare First Folio is published, filled with coded messages.
- Late 1800s: Dr. Owen memorizes the entire works of Shakespeare, begins to unravel the mystery!
- 2006, October: Decoded segments speak to our time of a golden age and time of enlightenment.

An exciting story of the discarded prince Sir Francis Bacon who hid his truth in code and about the brilliant young physician who proved the codes existed by building a cipher wheel according to decoded instructions in the Shakespeare plays.
